

PUBLIC NOTICE FOR ALCOHOL LICENCE GUIDE

How to place your public notice

After you lodge your application, you need to notify the public. To do this, you must place your public notice in the following two places.

- A. On the premises or conveyance
- B. In a local newspaper:
Hawke's Bay Today

1. PLACING YOUR PUBLIC NOTICE ON THE PREMISES

Within 10 working days of lodging your application, you must place the notice where a person outside the premises can easily read it. Use the public notice template on the next page.

2. PLACING YOUR PUBLIC NOTICE IN THE NEWSPAPER

Important note: Please advertise correctly - mistakes may result in the need to re- advertise.
Two* public notices are to be advertised in a local newspaper.

The first notice must be published:

- A. For all new licence applications two public notices are required the first public notice should be placed within 10 working days after making the application.

Please note: For renewals of premises or conveyances in the very low-risk or low-risk fees category only one newspaper notification is required.

The public notices must be at least 5 days apart but not more than 10 days

It's recommended the second notice is published on the same day of the following week.

The public notice for the newspaper must be in the form as shown on the next page.

If you are unsure on how to run your public notice please contact the Alcohol Licensing Inspector on 06 835 7579.
